

Training-scale behaviour of the global heads

Error bars are the sample standard deviation across 5 independent training seeds (ddof=1), labelled SD. They are NOT confidence intervals: no image-clustered evaluation interval exists for the v2_07 family, so none is drawn. 7,714 development questions over 768 represented images. The accuracy axis does not start at zero, so that the seed spread stays legible.